

5 Questions to Ask Candidates About Supporting Multilingual Learner Students in DE

KNOW BEFORE YOU VOTE!

Multilingual Learners (MLLS)

Multilingual Learners (MLLs) are a diverse group of students representing numerous languages, cultures, ethnicities, nationalities, and social, economic, and educational backgrounds.

Before you cast your ballot on Tuesday, Nov. 8, 2022 to elect local, state, and national leaders...

...Consider asking the following questions:

1. What do you think of Delaware's' education funding system?

2. Are you aware that Delaware spends about one tenth of the funding to support Multilingual Learner students than our neighboring states? How can we make education funding more equitable so students have the resources they need to be successful?

3. Currently, 25% of MLLs do not graduate from high school within 6 years. How can we ensure that our multilingual students are getting the support they need to graduate?

4. Do you support funding schools based on the unique needs of their students?

5. What are your priorities for improving education in Delaware?
